

My fear is that this kind of activity will lead to even further corruption of our democracy. The public has a right to fair and non-partisan coverage, not what we are getting with these corporate giants.